Summer Reading Programs for ALL Ages!
Worry less, read more! Get lost at your local Charleston County Public Library as we host our 2024 Summer Reading Program. In partnership with Charleston County School District (CCSD), the program promotes reading and offers incentives throughout the summer, along with featured events for all ages. Summer Reading runs through July 31. Check our website ccpl.org/summeronline for more information!

Shipwrecked “Summer Survival” Book Talk
Monday, July 15 at 2 p.m.
Join New York Times Bestselling co-author Angela May for a celebration of her third book in The Islanders series, Shipwrecked, written with Mary Alice Monroe. The story is a high-stakes adventure about survival for three Lowcountry best friends. Angela will be with a Coastal Expeditions naturalist guide, and together they’ll talk about the book and share tips about safety and survival in the wild. We’ll also have a scavenger hunt throughout the library! Goodie bags for attendees. Registration is required. Please call (843) 559-1945 ext. 6516 to register.

Cozy Campfire Stories
Saturday, July 27 at 10 a.m.
Join us for a fun, family-oriented event celebrating summer reading! Storyteller Karin Welcher presents Cozy Campfire Stories: lots of nature and laughs with a little bit of spookiness. Be inspired for your next camping adventure!

Get ready to follow the hilarious adventures of Engel, an angel ornament accidentally thrown into the Charleston harbor while still attached to the Christmas tree. Discover the fun of dramatic storytelling by reading aloud with confidence. Throw in some props if you have them! It's never too late or too soon to embrace the theatrical! Ms. Andrews will be signing books and helping older children make their first seashell wind chime while younger children make a seashell ornament. For kids ages 2-10 with an adult.

Japanese Magical Journey
Friday, July 26 at 2 p.m.
Combining traditional Japanese theatre, music, origami, magic, and storytelling, Yasu Ishida will guide audiences to the enchanting land of Japan. He will share excerpts from a Japanese traditional folktale with origami and a Japanese traditional vaudeville act with the playing of a traditional flute.

Sunprints
Tuesday, July 23 at 2 p.m.
Art, chemistry, and nature combined, sunprints are made with specially treated paper that changes color in the sun. We’ll use leaves, paper scraps, and other found objects to make pictures, then use sunlight and water to make their outlines permanent. Perfect for ages 4-10, but open to all with an adult to help!
